

Golden Plover

Golden Plover love the flow country – listen out for their cheerful ‘peep peep’ call during spring and summer.

Did you know? The Guinness Book of World Records was created when Sir Hugh Beaver wondered what the fastest bird was, the golden plover or the peregrine falcon.

